Located in the sought after Secret Garden community in South Sound, this rare 3-bedroom, 3-bathroom end-unit townhouse offers spacious, turnkey living in a well maintained, private setting.

The home features a bright open-plan living and dining area and a large, screened patio, perfect for families. The ground floor also includes a versatile guest bedroom with custom drop-down murphy bed and fitted closets, a full bathroom, and a well-appointed kitchen complete with shaker style cabinetry, granite countertops, stainless steel appliances to include beverage fridge, and a convenient sizable pantry and laundry space. Upstairs you will find the spacious primary suite and a second guest bedroom, both offering walk-in closets and en-suite bathrooms.

The property has been well maintained and includes plantation shutters throughout the inside and accordion hurricane shutters to the exterior.

Secret Garden residents enjoy excellent community amenities including two swimming pools, a gymnasium, children's playground, a multipurpose artificial turf recreation area, as well as being ideally located in South Sound with convenient access to the island's schools and close by George Town, and Camana Bay / SMB beyond.

This is a rare opportunity to own a spacious end-unit home in one of South Sound's most popular communities and is as equally suitable for an owner occupier or investor.
